Applicant's amendments and remarks filed 10/17/03 have been received and reviewed. The amendments have been entered and prosecution has been reopened. Claims 38-41 are pending in this application.

Claim 41 is allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brown et al. (Can. J. Research (1948), 26D, 177-87). The claim reads on the compound of RN 7025-91-4 (see CAS abstract and structure).

Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gilman et al. (Journal of the American Chemical Society (1952), 74, 3027-9). The claim reads on the compound of RN 32040-09-8 (see CAS abstract and structure).

Claims 39 and 40 are withdrawn from consideration because art was found (see MPEP 803.02.)

Applicants are also advised of MPEP 803.02 Restriction - Markush Claims [R - 2], fourth paragraph, where is stated;

“As an example, in the case of an application with a Markush - type claim drawn to the compound C - R, wherein R is a radical selected from the group consisting of A, B, C, D, and E, the examiner may require a provisional election of a single species, CA, CB, CC, CD, or CE.

Art Unit: 1624

The Markush - type claim would then be examined fully with respect to the elected species and any species considered to be clearly unpatentable over the elected species. If on examination the elected species is found to be anticipated or rendered obvious by prior art, the Markush - type claim and claims to the elected species shall be rejected, and claims to the non - elected species would be held withdrawn from further consideration. As in the prevailing practice, a second action on the rejected claims would be made final." (emphasis added).
